Part A – Professional Emails

Email 1 – Request for Assignment Extension

Subject: Request for Extension on Assignment Submission

Dear Professor,

I hope you are doing well. I am writing to request a short extension for the assignment due on [insert date] for [course name]. Unfortunately, I have been facing some unforeseen circumstances which affected my ability to complete the work on time.

I genuinely want to submit quality work that reflects my understanding of the subject. I would be grateful if you could kindly allow me an extension of a few days.

I sincerely apologize for any inconvenience caused and truly appreciate your consideration.

Thank you for your time.

Yours sincerely,
Yamya Verma

Email 2 – Application for Summer Internship

Subject: Application for Summer Internship Opportunity

Dear Internship Coordinator,

I hope this message finds you well. My name is Yamya Verma, and I am a first-year B.Tech student specializing in Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning at VIT Bhopal University.

I am writing to express my interest in a summer internship opportunity at your organization. I am eager to gain practical experience and further develop my skills in the field of AI and machine learning.

I am a highly motivated learner and am keen to contribute positively while gaining industry exposure. I would be grateful for the opportunity to be considered for any relevant internship roles.

Please find my resume attached for your review. I look forward to your response.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Yours sincerely,
Yamya Verma

Part B – Social Media Do's and Don'ts

Do's:

- Think before you post.
- Maintain respectful communication.
- Protect your personal information.
- Verify information before sharing.
- Build a positive digital presence.

Don'ts:

- Don't share offensive or harmful content.
- Don't engage in online arguments unnecessarily.
- Don't overshare personal details.
- Don't spread misinformation.
- Don't ignore privacy settings.

Reflection

One common issue caused by poor digital communication is misunderstanding due to unclear or informal messaging. For example, a student once sent a brief and casual email to a professor requesting important academic information, but the tone appeared disrespectful. As a result, the professor did not respond promptly, which delayed the student's work.

This situation could have been avoided by using a clear subject line, a polite greeting, and a well-structured message. Professional communication not only conveys respect but also increases the chances of receiving a timely and helpful response. Being mindful of tone, clarity, and structure is essential in digital communication.
